Beverley has invited her new neighbours Angela and Tony for drinks. She has also asked her divorced neighbour Sue because Sue's fifteen-year-old daughter Abigail is holding a party in their house.

Beverley's husband Lawrence comes home late from work, just before the guests arrive. The gathering starts off in a stiff, insensitive, British middle-class way with people who do not know each other, until Beverley and Lawrence start sniping at each other with devastating, darkly comic consequences.
