Two of his brilliant monologues
A CHIP IN THE SUGAR. Graham has a structured life living with his Mother.
When an old flame of hers reappears how will he cope?
A LADY OF LETTERS. Miss Ruddock writes letters to all & sundry.
But is there something sinister going on locally and should she get involved?

followed by a one act play, SAY SOMETHING HAPPENED.
An inexperienced Council worker goes to visit an elderly married couple to offer assistance should 'something happen'. However, things don't go quite as she planned.
